

LUSITANA BEATS HER OWN BEST RUN TO QUEENSTOWN

Makes Eastward Voyage in 5 Days 37 Minutes, Cutting Off 3 Hours.

LIVERPOOL, July 21.—The Cunard Line steamer Lusitania, which arrived here today, has broken her eastward record to Queenstown over the long course. She left Sandy Hook Lightship July 15, at 5:56 P. M., and arrived off Daunt's Rock July 20, at 11:33 P. M. Her time in transit was 5 days and 37 minutes, and her average rate of speed for the entire distance 21.32 knots an hour.

Her best previous run, five days three hours and twenty-one minutes, was made at an average of 23.77. The present record is an improvement of two hours and forty-four minutes.
